THE PRODIGAL SON.

LESSON TEXT-Luke 15:11-22. GOLDEN TEXT-"I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight." Luke 15:18.

The parables of Jesus are marvels of unity and condensation, yet no necessary detail is omitted. This, perhaps his most famous, is no exception even though it does carry a double lesson. Who thinks of the older brother when this story is mentioned? Though designated the "Story of the Prodikal," we need to remind ourselves that the word "prodigal" never once occurs in the story. The opening sentence speaks of a father and of two sons. It is really the parable of a perfect father, the unveiling of the true heart of God. Against that background is set off a self-centered son lacking in natural affection. Also alongside the wayward son is the miserly, selfish one who lacked all the good qualities of his brother, but who was truly a wanderer and out of harmony with God the Father. In the background we see the citizens of the far country who helped this young Jew to his place of want, famine and degradation. Remember, it is our Lord speaking to Jews. When the Gentiles of the far country sent him to feed swine they insulted him by compelling him to get his living through an occupation instinctively repulsive.

First Fruit of Sin.

The father makes equal partition 'divided unto them." (V. 12) though neither son had a right to demand a partition of his estate. At the bottom of the son's request was andesire to have his own way-to be independent of God. He did not go away from home at once, though his heart was already in the "far country."

I. Into the Far Country, vv. 13-16. Fun is the first fruit of sin, and that the son readily found so long as his money lasted (Heb. 11:25). But the consequences followed closely on its trail, for when he had "spent all" he began to be in "want." There are many attractive things about this young man, but those qualities were perverted, they lacked control, they were good servants but bad taskmasters. It is not always physical. temporal want that comes to the sinner, there are deeper and more intense longings-soul want and soul hunger. These always come to the soul away from God. Being in want does not mean that a man's will has been subdued. Some prodigals in the Cross Ball Blue, Makes beautiful. most abject temporal need are as proud as Lucifer, and boast of their rebellion. So he "joined himself to a citizen of the country." He did not belong there-the citizen did. He was set to the most degrading task imaginable for a Jew-feeding swine.

Like a Lost Sheep.

II. The Home Coming, vv. 17-24.

The first step was for the son to stop and really think. That is where salvation always begins-in thinking. He knew he was lost, e. g., out of adjustment, in the wrong place, out of his element and like the lost sheep, "ready to die." He saw his coudition, money gone, friends gone, hogs for companions, no food for his sustenance. He saw his value. He was more important than the servants of his father's home. He saw his father's love, already manifested in what had been given him and we fain would believe that when he left home he had the father's urgent plea to return. He saw a way to escape from his present position. All of this after "Death Valley," California. sur- he "came to himself." The father had not once forgotten him; he "had compassion" even though the son was unmerciful to himself and to all of his loved ones. The father kissed him before he was washed or otherwise made presentable. His real need was paramount to that evidenced by his rags, hunger, or the ravages of his dissipation. When he did make his confession (vv. 20, 21), we note no reference to the matter of his becoming a servant. It is doubtful if the father gave him an opportunity to state that part of his resolve. Then there came forth the "best robe" (Isa. 61:10; Phil. 3:9 R. V.). And a "ring" the pledge of his sonship, Eph. 1:13. 14; Gal. 4:6, and shoes also, Eph. 6:15. TORTURING TWINGES

Much so-called rheumatism is caused by weakened kidneys. When the kid-neys fail to clear the blood of uric acid, the acid forms into crystals like bits of broken glass in the muscles, joints and on the nerve casings. Torturing pains dart through the affected part whenever it is moved. By curing the kidneys, Doan's Kidney Pills have eased thousands of rheumatic cases, lumbago, sciatica, gravel, neuralgia and urioary disorders.
